A PIANO RECITAL

Supporting

The East Africa Food Crisis

BOBBY CHEN is a world-renowned pianist, described by International Piano Magazine as “an armour-clad player of complete technique, a thinking musician, a natural Romantic”. When he’s not touring or teaching, he lends his talent to charitable causes in his parish and beyond.

We’re so grateful to Mr Chen for offering this solo recital in support of the people of East Africa, who are currently battling through the effects of climate change and severe food shortages. We hope you can join us too.

Dress code: Smart-casual (no trainers, please).

Please RSVP to majorgifts@cafod.org.uk and let us know if you would like to come to both the recital and drinks or the recital only.

Front: Talaso, 22, lives in a village called Warra, in Marsabit County, northern Kenya. She dreams of sending her youngest son, Ali, to school, but says that it will be difficult afford the fees if the drought continues and she has to keep buying water.
