Bobby Chen was a pupil of Ruth Nye and Hamish Milne at the Yehudi Menuhin School and the Royal Academy of Music, and burst on the scene in a British tour with Lord Yehudi Menuhin and the Warsaw Sinfonia, and a recital at the Royal Festival Hall. He was concerto soloist under Mathias Bamert, Maximiano Valdés, Michał Nesterowicz, Sir Neville Marriner, Giancarlo Guerrero and others, made his Italian solo recital debut at the Fazioli Concert Hall and given four solo recitals at the Wigmore Hall. He has performed solo recitals in support of the British Jesuit Alumni Charitable Trust, Rainforest Concern, The Federation of International Women's Association and Caritas Ukraine. It is a pleasure for CAFOD to join this list with this recital in support of East Africa.

East Africa is seeing its worst drought in 40 years. Talaso (pictured below) lives in Warra, Northern Kenya, and she and her family are living through this devastating drought. There's no pasture for their livestock and food in the markets is at a record high. But she hasn't given up.

Backed by the Catholic community of England and Wales, CAFOD's partners are working with Talaso, and many more like her, to support themselves and their families.

You can help too. Find out how by visiting cafod.org.uk/AutumnAppeal

Thank you.
